Our dearest students,

List of Canada Student Visa Documents

1. Letter of acceptance – Official admission letter from a Canadian Designated Learning Institution (DLI) confirming your course and start date
2. Provincial/Territorial Attestation Letter (PAL/TAL) – Approval letter from the province/territory confirming you are allowed to study there (required for most students now)
3. Proof of identity – Valid passport and sometimes passport-sized photos to confirm identity and travel history
4. Proof of funds – Bank statements or financial proof showing you can pay tuition, living expenses, and return travel (must be convincing and sufficient balance)
5. Letter of explanation – A personal statement explaining why you want to study in Canada and your future plans after studying
6. Medical exam – Health check from an approved panel doctor if required based on country, long stay, or program type
7. Police certificate – Criminal record check to show you have no serious legal issues (only required in some cases or if requested)
8. Custodianship documents – Required if you are under 18 (or sometimes under 19 depending on province), proving a responsible guardian in Canada
9. Extra supporting documents – Additional papers like study plan, previous education records, or visa office-specific documents depending on your country.
